

Arpit Chug
Chief Financial Officer, Razorpay

Arpit Chug is the Chief Financial Officer at Razorpay. He is responsible for the Finance, Credit Risk, and Legal functions at Razorpay. Arpit is an alumnus of the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad. Prior to Razorpay, Arpit was the CFO of American Express for 17 years and has led the finance function for all lines of business. In addition to this, he was also the Head of Treasury for the Asia Pacific, Japan, and Australia at Amex.

While Arpit has always enjoyed working with numbers and crunching and calculating them constantly, what interests him more is being able to tell financial stories through numbers. Arpit also believes as a finance professional, he is usually biased by numbers so he constantly reminds himself that 'not everything that can't be counted counts, not everything that counts can be counted.
